Art Unit: 3748

Claims 1-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It's unclear what exactly expansion device 28 is. Please provide more information about said expansion device 28 because it seems that device may carry allowable subject matter if it's clearly defined by Applicant in the claims.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6, 8, 11-16, 21-24, 27-29, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by US 4291538 (Husain et al).

Husain et al discloses a power plant comprising a turbine 44, an accumulator 75, a liquid separator 52 having an upper chamber acting as an expansion device because it has space for the exhaust fluid from the turbine 44 to expand, a compressor 58 for sucking gas out from said upper chamber, the exhaust gas from turbine 44 through conduit 50 inherently heats the expansion device because the heat of the exhaust fluid contacts said liquid separator 52; said vaporized gas is then recirculated through the accumulator 75, then return to the intake of said turbine by a pump 92.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. 4291538 (Husain et al) in view of U.S. 4089177 (Olofsson). Husain discloses all the claimed subject matter as set forth above in the rejection of claim 1, but does not disclose a convergent-divergent nozzle for the turbine. Olofsson is relied upon to disclose it's well known to have a convergent-divergent nozzle 17, 18, for a turbine 1. It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to provide a convergent-divergent nozzle for the turbine of Husain et al as taught by Olofsson for the purpose of achieving appropriate input pressure.

Claims 9-10, 17-20, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. 4291538 (Husain et al). Husain discloses all the claimed subject matter as set forth above in the rejection of claim 1, but does not disclose the specific types of fluid, turbine, or blower as claimed. However, it would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to select different types of fluids, turbine or blower in Husain et al for the purpose of achieving appropriate work outputs.

Art Unit: 3748

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. SAdhukhan, Nishioka, Letvin, and Woodcock disclose power plant comprising expansion devices at exhaust of the turbines.
